

I love the NO CALL list. I work all day and don't want to be distrubed during my meals or my quiet time. My husband farms and goes to bed early and is up by 4:00 a.m. Many nights his sleep has been disturbed by telemarketers that can't take no 3 times a night seriously. I think their calling borders on harrassment. My dad is 88 and lives alone. I don't like the idea of someone calling and "bullying" or "confusing him" into buying something he can't afford or doesn't need.
